

Cooke Booth Caper #1 Clue

I saw someone leaving with a light colored box under their arms. It could have been tan or yellow... or maybe even orange, I'm not sure.

Cooke Booth Caper #2 Clue

All I saw at the table was a family with a bunch of kids and a man with a bag. I don't think they were together, he was standing off to the side like he was waiting for something.

We sold out of Lemonades before the theft happened, so I know they didn't take that kind!

Front Porch Felony #1 Clue

I saw a person with blonde hair walk up to the house. They had a bunch of boxes in their hands so I figured they were delivering packages, but when they walked away from the house they still had a box in their hands.

Front Porch Felony #2 Clue

I was walking through my neighborhood when someone ran by me very quickly. I didn't get a good look at them, but I smelled peanut butter.

Cookie Booth Caper #4 Clue

Albert was on a work trip when the thefts occurred, so we know he didn't do either one.

Cookie Booth Caper #5 Clue

We found a piece of the box lying in the parking lot.

Cookie Booth Caper #6 Clue

There was mud near the sidewalk and we took a picture of these footprints.

Front Porch Felony #3 Clue

Here's pictures we got from the house's security system of three people who came up to the house that day.

Front Porch Felony #4 Clue

The video footage from the house across the street doesn't show the person very well, but it's hard to miss the bright red box in their hands.

Front Porch Felony #5 Clue

We found the box lying in the neighbor's yard and we were able to get this fingerprint from it.
